Organisation Name Browse

The Organisational Name Browse provides the facility to search all the available organisations both companies and businesses stored in the ASIC's database of more than 1 million records. Organisational searches are free of charge.

This option provides a search by name. Once a name is searched and a list of organisations appears, a company or business name search can be performed simply by clicking on the ACN or RBN hypertext link.

The screenshot shows the ASIC website interface. At the top left is the 'abr' logo. To its right is the 'ASIC' logo and a navigation bar with links for 'home', 'main menu', and 'search menu'. Below the navigation bar is a welcome message: 'Welcome to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission access page'. A sub-header reads: 'A range of existing and new Australian Securities and Investments Commission services are available'. A list of services follows, with the first item, '1. Organisation Name Browse(Company or Business)', highlighted in a pink box. A pink arrow points from this box to the text 'Organisation Name Browse is located on the menu as option 1.' on the right. The list includes:

- 1. Organisation Name Browse\(Company or Business\)Detail
- 2. Personal Name Browse Detail

Personal Name Browse

The Personal Name search displays all the matching names on the ASIC's database with respect to an individuals' role.

Once a name is browsed, the facility is provided to obtain a Personal Name Extract on the individual searched. This displays information including:

- Personal Name Roles
- Appointment Date
- Company Name
- Address
- Company Type
- Company Status
- Relevant Document Number

The screenshot shows the ASIC website header with the ABR logo and navigation links. Below the header, a welcome message is followed by a list of services. A pink box highlights 'Personal Name Browse' as option 2, with a pink arrow pointing to it.
